"There are too many foreigners in the town for me to advertise," is what a solicitor gets hurled at him some times. Every gazaboc that ever said that has gone out of business because he harbored such thoughts. The goblins will get you if you don't watch out.

They are not doing all the killing over in Europe. A lot of people right here in Monessen are killing time. God created time and don't you dare try to kill it. You are trying though if you don't advertise.

May Secure Carnegie Hero Medal For Youth

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade in the council room of the borough building last evening a number of important matters were acted upon finally, preparatory to the summer recess of this organization. Reports from various committees were read and all acted upon favorably.

The report of the committee on Parks and Playgrounds was read and the plans of R. P. Allaman, landscape gardener, for the beautifying of Sixth street park were accepted and a start will be made on the work in the near future. The Amusement committee made a report on their plans for the Fourth of July celebration which proved acceptable to the organization and includes a parade and band concert.

The Civic committee recommends that steps be taken towards securing a hero medal for the John Hughes family, whose son met death in the Monongahela river after saving his companion, Vernon Albrecht, on the morning of June 7. The matter will be presented to the Carnegie Hero Commission for action.

The committee in charge of the Chautauqua reported that the contract had been signed for the holding of that great event here July 26 to August 1 and that the advance man would be here July 14 to assist the 200 guarantors in disposing of 1,000 tickets

Three Men Face Burgess This Morning

Alex Sluckles was arrested on information of A. Frazier, charged with appropriating borough material to his own use without the consent of the borough. Mr. Frazier had just deposited some gravel sand and cement in front of a sewer inlet in order to get to work early the next morning. When he arrived on the scene in the morning the material was all gone and Mr. Frazier began to look about. He was not long in tracing the stuff to the home of Alex Sluckles near by. He at once had a warrant issued for the man.

This morning at the hearing he plead guilty and was fined $1.00 and costs, $4.80 for the material, in all amounting to $8.30 which he paid.

Frank Powell, giving his age as 61 years and his residence as Pittsburgh, plead guilty to being drunk. He was permitted to get out of town.

Eno Lane was charged on information of his wife with being drunk and making fun of her. She said he brought home four bottles of beer and was drinking them in the alley near the house. She said she broke three of the bottles but couldn't get hold of the others. He was fined $3.00 and costs or three days to the street. He decided to work on the street.

Two New Districts Established

A decision was handed down by the court Thursday permitting the redistricting of the First and Second wards of this city into four voting districts. Some time ago a petition was presented to the court asking for this change by the citizens of the town. These changes will go into effect in time for the primaries, and there will be two new polling places in the hill district, one in the First ward and another in the Second ward. For several years these two wards led in the county with the largest number of voters and lately the increase was so great that it was impossible for the election board to take care of the men who came after working hours to cast their ballot. When the change goes into effect the work will be divided and the results of the election from this town will be known earlier than usual.

Youthful Thief Admits Many Local Robberies

Joe Wedzelosky with several aliases, the incorrigible fifteen year old boy from Third street hollow, was again captured by Chief Wheatley yesterday and a charge of robbery lodged against him.

The boy has broken into several stores recently, among them that of the A. R. Ney company, Garman's shoe store, the News Stand and the Gas office and the Monessen Hardware Co. In several instances the proprietors kept the theft from the police for some unknown reason, but the chief got to hear that considerable money and other articles had been taken and he kept a look out for the suspicious party.

The lad had recently purchased a new bicycle and paid the cash for it and when asked where he got the money, he said his mother gave it to him. An interview with the mother proved the boy was telling a lie and this morning he said he stole the money from the carnival when it was here. He convicted himself of stealing and will be turned over to the Juvenile court. This is the same boy Judge McConnell paroled, believing he was worthy of another chance. When hailed before the court this time, he will likely receive a stiff sentence as his attitude is one of brazen defiance. He looks into the face of the officers with a stare and tells of his escapades with a daring look.

There are seven children in the family and this boy is the oldest. Several of the children have police records and the mother is in a very bad way financially, as the husband and father deserted them sime time ago and she has to make her way in the world the best she can.

Church Choir To Give Concert

—The members of the Christian church choir are planning to make the concert, which is to be given on Thursday evening, June 24, the best that has been given in the church for some time. Some of the best talent from Monongahela City, Charleroi and Monessen has been secured for the occasion. The out of town numbers consist of the Monongahela Male quartette, Mrs. R. G. Todd, soprano and Miss Mary Chester, a reader from Charelroi, and on the program from Monessen will be Miss Elva Owens, pianist, Trombone quartette, Mrs. D. J. McMahon and Miss Clara Dawson, readers and the M. E. Sunday school orchestra. Program starts at eight o'clock.

—All members of the L. C. B. A. are requested to meet at the home of William Lauer, 684 Reed avenue this evening at 8 o'clock. 1t fp

Mrs. William Lauer Died This Morning

Mrs. William Lauer, nee Marie Gottbrath died at 7:20 this morning at her home, 642 Reed avenue, after a lingering illness caused by a complication of diseases. About a year ago she left for her native home in Germany for her health, but returned in September with very little improvement. The deceased was born in Essen, Germany, 47 years ago and 23 years ago was married to William Lauer. Besides her husband, she is survived by five children, Elfrieda, William, Victoria, Arthur and Anna, and one brother, Joseph Gattbrath of Donora. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

—Take a kodak along on your vacation. All prices and sizes at Kirk's.

Men At Work On New Mill Site

The $3,000,000 zinc smelter to be erected at Donora will be located on the Heslep and Gilmore farms at the lower end of town.

Early in the week notices were posted wanting 75 laborers, and Thursday morning another notice was posted for 100 additional men. They were put to work removing the large ore pile from its present location to the blast furnace at West Columbia. Three corps of civil engineers are at work locating the foundations for the proposed big mill.

—Summer school June 21 —July 30. Room 3, Jefferson building. Grades 3 to 8. Tuition 75c per week for each subject. Elizabeth Mitchell, teacher. 4-3t

—A long thirst! You can satisfy it at Kirk's fountain.

Knights of Malta Outing July 24th

Much enthusiasm has been aroused in this vicinity by the announcement of the Third Annual Outing and Field Day of the Knights of Malta of Western Pennsylvania, which will be held at Kennywood park, Saturday, July 24.

This outing will be held under the auspices of the Field Day Association of Western Pennsylvania, which is composed of over 100 commanderies and 25 Sisterhoods. The officers of the association for this year are: Geo. Q. Adams, president; J. M. Pollock, vice president; S. J. Sloan, treasurer and G. C. Welch, secretary.

The outing this year is again for the benefit of the Knights of Malta Home and hospital Association, which has purchased a site near Lewistown, Pa., and work preliminary to the erection of the buildings is being pushed with vigor.

Fully 20,000 people attended the outing last year—the largest crowd of people that ever assembled in Kennywood park on any one day—and the various committees are leaving nothing undone to double the number this year. It will be the largest Malta outing ever held in Pennsylvania. The railroads have consented to run special trains within a radius of 100 miles of Pittsburgh.

W. C. T. U. Held Union Meeting

Members of the Monessen, Monongahela, Belle Vernon, Donora, Charleroi and Eldora organizations of the Women's Christian temperance union held a union meeting at the home of Mrs. John Sampson of Eldora. Following the opening services conducted by the Eldora organization, the delegation from Belle Vernon took charge of the meeting. Mrs. A. N. Marston gave an address emphasizing the importance of the advertising of meetings and of wearing the white ribbons. Miss Shuster, also of Belle Vernon, gave a talk on woman suffrage. The Donora people then took up the program and addresses were made by Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. Rabe and Mrs. Smith, on the work of the W. C. T. U. and the significance of the white ribbon. Mrs. John Leathers sang "Shadow Time" and Mrs Erhardt of Donora also made an address. Mrs. Reamer of Monessen spoke on "Justice We Do Not Get," and other prominent members of the Monessen organization made short talks. The Eldora organization was established last October and is the youngest society of the kind in the valley. Mrs. George Stearns of Eldora gave an outline of their plan of work.

THIS LAW NEVER WILL DO!
WHY WOMEN CAN'T VOTE

Gary, Ind., June 18—Before women suffrage is granted in Indiana, the election laws will have to be revised. A section of the law reads as follows: "The curtains in front of the booths must be of sufficient heighth from the floor to make the lower limbs of the voter plainly visible to the election officers."

Girls From Laundry At Kennywood Today

Seventeen girls employed at the Monessen Laundry left this morning on the 9 o'clock train to spend the day at Kennywood park. Besides having a good time they will put forth every effort to advertise Monessen with pennants and banners.

Stick to the Brush

Ah! what's the use in combing your hair, swatting the fly,sleeping on a roof, and lambasting the baby for eating mud pies? These germologists never agree on anything for five days, anyhow.

Here comes the journal Oral Hygiene with an attack on one of our cherished institutions—the toothbrush—by Dr. Bernard Feldman, a distinguished dentist and germologist of New Jersey, a state where you swallow germs when you travel and fight 'em nights when you don't sleep.

The toothbrush, says Dr. Feldman, is full of germs and cannot be cleared of germs by any ordinary process. On every bristle of the toothbrush there are 74,198 germs, which in two weeks or thereabouts, will produce, by geometrical progression 798,000,000,084 more germs. These latter in turn, as the toothbrush ages, will produce progeny to the number of—well, we just haven't type enough to show you that number. Call it plenty enough to scare the daylights out of you.

Moreover, according to Dr. Feldman, the toothbrush wears away your teeth and hurts your gums and folks should go back to the old Japanese method of cleaning the teeth with the forefinger, rather than risk the common toothbrush.

It's time that these germologists got settled in their convictions. A good many people, upon their advice, gave up the corncob and adoped the hoghair toothbrush, and now, it appears that the latter is buggy. Life is just one blamed germ fight after another, anyhow, and the contradictions of the scientists are no help to humanity.

However, cleaning teeth with a forefinger, like a Jap, or with a big toe, like a hen, won't appeal to many. We'll stick to the toothbrush until the germ sharp gets up some sort of a buzzer that we can take to the washstand and buzz the germs galley west with it.

A Pretty Tribute

The authorities of Louvain, Belgium, propose a very pretty thing, in the way of grateful recognition, by giving American names to parts of their city as they rise from the ruins. Three streets or squares will be named "Wilson," "Washington" and "American Nation."

It is a brotherly and beautiful idea, but it will not be complete without one other name, the name of a man who lives in the love of present-day America as no other can.

This man, above all others, we present as typical of American humanitarism. He sprang from the American farm. He educated himself while swinging an ax. He loved freedom and independence above all else, and all men always. He wielded the sword of justice with charity in his heart, and wept over the erring brother whom he was compelled to smite that God might rule and self government live. As a statesman, he saw only the brotherhood of men. With him the right was the only might. They ought to name one whole city for him.

Another New Song

A song that is sailing toward the high seas of popularity starts off with some words like these: "Nab it, grab it, get the dollar habit." Wrong. That's not the habit to get, or to grab or to nab. This isn't the time of the year to acquire a "dollar habit"—if, indeed, there ever is any time of the year in which the "dollar habit" is a good one.

But there are other habits that are good and useful during the summer days. If you want to nab or grab or get a habit that is really worth while, why not—

Nab the "outdoor habit."

Grab the "take the family to the picnic habit."

Get the "fresh air habit."

Let the "dollar habit" take care of itself. You must have money in order to take a day off once in a while. The dollar is necessary so that you can have beefsteak and shoes. But at best, it's grubbing to get it and it's not to be mentioned in the same breath with the good, enjoyable things of life.

Germany is considering "what to do for the great army of widows and orphans left by the war," and the only solution seems to be to get work for them. All the other belligerent countries will have this same problem, and the solution will is the same—hard labor for women and children. You can't figure out of it anything less than racial deterioration. War's awful effects last through many years of peace, and the nation that does not prepare itself to preserve its peace is foolish.

Picnic Thursday

The Sunday school of the Christ Evangelical Lutheran church will hold its annual picnic next Thursday at Lynn's Grove. Arrangements had been made to hold it at Price's farm, but this change was made because it was more easily reached. Bring your friends and your baskets and a pleasant disposition. Games and contests will be features of the day. The Parcel Post Sale given by the Ladies of the Christ Lutheran church was well attended and a success from every point.

YOUTH AND AGE AGAIN DISAGREE—SEEK DIVORCE

Butte, Mont., June 19.—Veronica Lecompte, aged 19, the bride of Dexter Lecompte, aged 71, has begun suit for divorce here. She claims cruelty as the cause, in that her aged spouse accused her of being too familiar with other and younger men.

MONESSEN, JULY 26 to AUGUST 1

TRAPSHOOTERS ON EDGE

All Eyes Turned to Chicago and Sixteenth G. A. H.

While the professional shooters of Europe, due to a sort of misunderstanding, are making somewhat strenuous efforts to reach certain objectives—to be particular, Berlin, London, Petrograd, Paris, Vienna and Rome—a million or so of the more than ten million owners of shotguns in the United States are reading with intense interest the latest (uncensored) dispatches from Chicago, a town in Illinois, where the Sixteenth Grand American (trapshooting) Handicap Tournament will be staged, shot or fought, whichever you prefer, on August 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20.

FRED GILBERT,
"The Wizard of Spirit Lake" (Iowa).

Of course the Windy City will not be invaded by anything like a million gunmen, but what is lacking in quantity will be made up in quality, and the seven hundred or more shooters who will participate in the battle of Grant Park will give an exhibition of gun firing that will make the European war record of one bit in ten thousand shots look like little Willie's first efforts with an air rfle.

The winners of first, second, third, fourth and fifth places will each receive a handsome trophy and, respectively, a purse of $500, $400, $300, $200 and $100.

The tremendous task of classifying and handicapping every trapshooter in the country who might enter the big argument has been assigned to the following sportsmen of national reputation: O. P. Goode, chairman, Chicago; C. D. Coburn, Mechanicsburg, O.; "Cap" J. F. Wulf, Milwaukee, Wis.; J. K. Warren, Birmingham, Ala.

One of the most important features of the G. A. H. will be a race for the national amateur championship. To earn the right to represent their states in the elimination affair at Chicago, shooters must outshoot all comers at home, and having won their respective state championships, the champs will be pitted against each other—some forty or more representing different states—at Chicago.

How different this is from every other championship contest. Ordinarily a tennis player, a golfer or other player, takes a pot shot at some other one fellow—the "champion"—who has won his title by taking a pot shot at some other "champion." But not so in the shooting game. The fellow who lands the coveted national honor at the traps must earn it, and earn it hard.

OKOBOJI INDIAN UPRISING

Lake Erie Tribe Prepare For Heap Big Trap Shoot.

By Chief Long Shot.

In days gone by scalping was the favorite outdoor sport on the shores of Lake Erie, and no discrimination was shown in the kind of scalps lifted, but times have changed, due to the activities of Uncle Samuel's cavalry, and now the "scalp losing" is limited to palefaces who give battle to the Okoboji tribe of trapshooters at Cedar Point, O.

The 1915 scalpfest will be held at the Lake Erie resort on June 29, 30 and July 1, when the Okoboji braves, squaws and papooses will pitch their tepees and await the invasion of the tenderfeet. Chief Herald announces that big medicine will be made and that already dogs for the feast are being fattened and wood for the signal fires is drying in the sun.

To arrest the chills started down the spinal columns of readers by the Okoboji vernacular, let it be understood that these terrible "Indians" are in private life some of the most representative sportsmen in the United States, who annually foregather at Cedar Point to hold one of the most interesting and important meets on the trapshooting calendar.

Something like two hundred shooters, with their wives and children, will enjoy the big outing and clay pigeon tournament. The Okobojis extend welcome to all American trapshooters to partake of the "venison" and smoke the pipe of peace around the council fire.

Shooting leagues are doing their part in the promotion of trapshooting and are rapidly increasing. A few years ago the Philadelphia Trapshooters' League was about the only important one, but now there are strong leagues in every section of the country.

Comforting Words

Many a Monessen Household Will Find Them So

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Monessen readers.

Mrs. Ida Coleman, 311 Sixth street, Monessen, says: "I was troubled by a constant backache and in the morning, especially when I stooped to put on my shoes, I found it hard to straighten. Sharp pains took my breath away. I felt tired all the time and had dizzy spells and hot flashes. My head ached. I doctored for a long time, but didn't get much good and finally I got Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at Hirsch drug store. They gave me great relief and after I had taken the second box, the trouble disappeared. I haven't had any cause for complaint since. Others of the family are now using Doan's Kidney Pills and consider them the best kidney medicine on the market."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Coleman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

II---L. E. Johnson

On Two-Cent Passenger Rates

The farmers of this nation are vitally interested in railroad rates and equity between passenger and freight rates is especially important to the man who follows the plow for the farmer travels very little but he is a heavy contributor to the freight revenues. Some of the states have a two cent passenger rate and whatever loss is incurred is recovered through freight revenue. The justice of such a procedure was recently passed upon by the Supreme Court of West Virginia and the decision is so far-reaching that we have asked L. E. Johnson, president of the Norfolk and Western Railway whose road contested the case to briefly review the suit. Mr. Johnson said in part:

"Some ten years ago, passenger fares were fixed by the legislatures of a large number of states at two cents a mile. As a basis for such economic legislation, no examination was made of the cost of doing the business so regulated, nor was any attention given to the fact whether such a rate would yield to the railway companies an adequate or any net return upon the capital invested in conducting this class of business.

"Such a law was passed in West Virginia in 1907. The Norfolk and Western Railway Company put the rate into effect and maintained it for two years. Its accounting during these two years showed that two cents a mile per passenger barely paid the out-of-pocket cost and nothing was left to pay any return on capital invested. It sought relief from the courts. Expert accountants for both the State and the Railway Company testified that the claims of the railroad were sustained by the facts. Two cents did not pay the cost of carrying a passenger a mile. The State, however, contended that the railroad was earning enough surplus on its state freight business to give a fair return upon the capital used in its passenger as well as its freight business. For the purposes of the case, the railroad did not deny this, but held to its contention that the State could not segregate its passenger business for rate fixing without allowing a rate that would be sufficient to pay the cost of doing business and enough to give some return upon the capital invested in doing the business regulated. This was the issue presented to the Supreme Court. Its decision responds to the judgment of the fair-minded sentiment of the country. The Supreme Court says that, even though a railroad earns a surplus on a particular commodity by charging reasonable rates, that affords no reason for compelling it to haul another's person or property for less than cost. The surplus from a reasonable rate properly belongs to the railway company. If the surplus is earned from an unreasonable rate then that rate should be reduced. The State may not even up by requiring the railroad to carry other traffic for nothing or for less than cost.

The decision is a wholesome one and demonstrates that the ordinary rules of fair dealing apply to railway companies. The fact that one makes a surplus on his wheat crop would never be urged as a reason for compelling him to sell his cotton at less than cost. It would not satisfy the man who wanted bread to be told that its high price enabled the cotton manufacturer to get his raw product for less than cost. In this case the court reaffirmed the homely maxim that each tub must stand upon its own bottom."

DIVORCED WITHIN A MONTH WOMAN WEDS AGAIN

Bridgeport, Conn., June 19—Mrs. Emily Trowbridge Gallatin obtained a divorce less than a month ago from Frederick Gallatin, Jr., the noted polo player and New York clubman, will be married today to John Garvin, son of a wealthy pa peanmurfiO Ga— a wealthy paper manufacturer of Hartford. The wedding will take place at the home of J. A. Trowbridge, Dr. Carlos Martyn performing the ceremony. The groom was a chum of Alfred Vanderbilt at Yale and was one of the crack pitchers of the varsity nine. The Gallatin divorce created a sensation. The allegation was made that Gallatin had sold some property to buy jewelry for another woman. The interception of an incriminating letter by his wife led to the divorce action.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Reported Elopement Was Confirmed

The wedding of Todd Zell and Miss Grace L. Plummer occurred at 11 p. m. Tuesday, June 15th, at the parsonage of the Christian church of Pine Flats, Pa. On Thursday, the young couple took the Pennsylvania train for Ambridge, Pa. They expect to return to Monessen in about nine days and go to housekeeping in a home already furnished by Mr. Zell on Donner avenue.

The bride is a talented young woman and has been a resident of Monessen for a number of years and enjoys a large acquaintance in her community. Mr. Zell is well and favorably known in Monessen also. He is employed at the Pittsburgh Steel as a brick layer. Both are active members of the Christian church. Before leaving Pine Flats, the three hundred gathered together and with shot guns and tin cans bid the young couple good-bye.

WILL HOLD CONVENTION IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill., June 19—The "early birds" reaching Chicago for the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the world rolled into town this morning in special trains. Other large parties have been heard from, and it is expected that before nightfall, ten thousand advertising men from all points of the compass will be under the sheltering wing of the Chicago entertainers.

A monster program of work and play has been completed, covering every minute of the day during the five days of the convention. Mayor Thompson has thrown the city open to the ad men. Pastors of churches have thrown their pulpits open to the advertising men, and tomorrow the convention will solemnly open with a half hundred ad men preaching the new ethics of business. The amateur preachers will sound the slogan of the association, the "new business conscience," calling for honesty in advertising as well as in all other walks of business and human activity.

The most spectacular event of the convention will be a "night pageant" in which the delegates from the various sections of the United States and Canada will act as escorts to floats displayisg the products of the national advertisers of their section. The social side of the convention will include a two night musical and vaudeville entertainment. Special entertainments and receptions have been provided for the ladies attending.

The work of the convention is divided into groups and conferences embracing every division of advertising. What is announced as the keynote meeting of the sessions will be held Monday afternoon. Pres. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin will speak on "The Power of Education in Moralizing Industry;" Bishop Warren A. Candler of Atlanta, will talk on "Commerce and Christianity," and Henry A. Estabrook of New York is down for a speech on "Creating an Industrial Conscience."

According to William Woodhead of San Francisco, president of the association, the work of the convention will center on eliminating the faker, the shyster and the crook from advertising. "We want the public to know that the Associated Clubs is an organization which stands for greater efficiency. That, in its last analysis, means simply—the truth.

This sentiment is country-wide among advertising men and the fight has been started and will be continued against fakers. There are still newspapers that carry fake advertising and indirect advertising, but a vast number have cleaned up their pages and still a greater number are considering such action. Business men are generally beginning to see that advertising is more than mere preachment. It stands for a great business principle, and is the only way to make it effective is to make it believable, and that means sticking to the truth."

The convention will come to a close on Thursday when the new president will be presented at moving pictures will be shown of the ad men's pageant.

State Highway Has Issued Map

Harrisburg, Pa., June 19—The State Highway Department has just issued a sectional highway map of the Southwestern part of Pennsylvania on which State highways and State-aid highways, as well as County and Township roads are shown. The map is of large size and the names of townships, cities, boroughs, villages, railroads and all water courses are legibly marked.

This is the second sectional map of the state issued by the State Highway department, the Southeastern part having been put out last November. The Northeastern and Northwestern sectional maps are now in course of preparation.

These maps are of value to automobilists and to others using the highways of the state. A limited number has been prepared.

Motorcycle Races

Objections raised in California and Charleroi to the use of the streets for hill climbing contests will probably lead to the formation of a matinee racing association among motor-cyclists of this section.

A meeting is called for Wednesday evening, June 23, at the store of C. W. Albright, Charleroi, when this matter will be taken up and an organization probably effected. It is planned to use the Belle Vernon half-mile track, if satisfactory arrangements can be made, and race meets will be held regularly all summer. All motorcyclists of this town are urged to attend the organization meeting.
